WE BEING MANY, ARE ONE BODY IN CHRIST, AND EVERY ONE MEMBERS ONE OF ANOTHER.

This is our church . . . here we come close to God and to our fellow Christians in worship.

Here we learn the truths by which we may live a brave, happy and useful life in Christ Jesus.

Here we gain strength by which we become that which we have learned we ought to be.

Here we find comfort in our sorrows, courage in our struggles, joy in our victories.

Here we come into union with Christ, our Master and Friend.

In the Name of our Master we bid you a cordial welcome to this house of God, its worship, its comfort, and its peace.

We sincerely hope you have come expectantly, will worship spiritually, and depart joyfully.

You are no stranger in your Father's House. Here we see evidences of His care, feel the stimulation of His presence. Let us worship together in Christian fellowship.

Whosoever has opened wide the doors of this church, be thoughtful, be reverent, be silent, for this is the House of God. Upon entering, bow your head and pray for yourself, for those who minister, for all who worship here, for all who forget God.

May you find Christ preached in all His fulness—Savior, Sanctifier, Healer, and Coming King!

We being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Alliance churches across North America recorded over 5,000 conversions in Vacation Bible Schools in 1962, while only 3,000 conversions in evangelical services were recorded.

In the past four years our local Vacation Bible School has recorded 110 conversions.

Are you willing to sacrifice in order that you might have a part in this harvest of souls?

Are you willing to help ground our children in the WORD OF GOD?

ADDRESS.....

Dear Parent:

We are in the process of planning our Youth Zone Rally for November 11, 1963.

In these crises days more must be done to challenge youth for Christ. Therefore, we would like to extend our Zone Rally from three-quarters of a day to one and a half days. If this were to be done, people from our church would be asked to board some 150 young people for one night and one breakfast.

In order that we may know your reaction to the above, please circle one answer in each sentence below.

1. I am/am not in favor of extending the length of the Zone Rally as above.
2. I will take 1/2/3/4/5/6 young people for one night and one breakfast.

A LITTLE WHILE

*A little while to sow in tears and weakness
The precious seed along the vernal plain,
Till into life the tender blade expanding
Fresh promise gives of summer's ripening grain.
A little while of patient, earnest labor,
For His dear sake, our best and trust Friend;
A little while to wait for His appearing,
And then the joy that nevermore shall end.*

*A little while to bear the cross for Jesus
And meet the foe that once He overcame;
To stand unmoved, the Sword of Truth uplifting,
And through its power to conquer in His Name.
A little while around His Throne to gather
For one sweet hour within the house of prayer;
A little while when, heart with heart communing,
We know by faith that He Himself is there.*

*A little while to weep for those we cherish
As one by one they near the river's brink,
A little while to catch their sweet assurance
That we in Heaven shall find each broken link.
A little while! and then the glorious dawning
Of that fair morn beyond the swelling tide,
When we shall wake, and in our Saviour's likeness,
Perfect and pure, we shall be satisfied.*

WHERE JESUS REIGNS

Where Jesus reigns there is no fear,
No restless doubt, no hopeless war;
No base deceit nor faithless prayer,
No angry strife nor weak despair!
No greed for gain nor selfish pride,
No bitterness for aught denied;
No evil tongue, no cruel arm,
No envy, hate, nor wish to harm;
No wicked lust nor trace of stain;
BUT ALL IS PURE WHERE JESUS REIGNS!

Where Jesus reigns there is no sigh,
For He is wisdom, love, and light;
No raging sea nor tempest dread,
But quietness and calm instead!
No anxious care, no blind unrest,
No heavy heart by grief oppressed;
No discontent, no gloomy days,
But highest hope, and sweetest praise!
No stumbling oft, no galling chains,
NO SHAME NOR SIN WHERE JESUS REIGNS!

Where Jesus reigns there's joy untold,
There's wealth that's richer far than gold,
There's service glad and courage true,
There's power to be and strength to do!
There's sacrifice and sweet content,
There's grace divine and mercy sent,
There's triumph over self and sin,
And blessed peace abides within!
There's truest faith that never wanes,
THERE'S LOVE SUPREME WHERE JESUS REIGNS!

Forget not that your first and principal business as a disciple of Christ is to give the Gospel to those who have it not. He who is not a missionary Christian will be a missing Christian when the great day comes for bestowing the rewards of service. I warn you that it will go hard with you when your Lord comes to reckon with you if He finds your wealth hoarded up in needless accumulations instead of being sacredly devoted to giving the Gospel to those who have never heard.—A. J. Gordon

— THE TEACHER —

They come to me with eager, asking eyes,
And in my heart I pray: "God, make me wise;
They are so earnest in the things they ask,
I would be faithful to my Teacher's task!

"The way is long—I cannot teach alone,
I am so weak and often weary grown:
Thou who didst teach so wide and patiently,
Oh, teach me, Lord, that I may teach like Thee."

My Duty to Him . . .

Just to be faithful in thing that are small,
Just to walk steady where others may fall,
Just to be willing if Jesus should call;
This is my duty to Him.

Just to be friendly to those I dislike,
Just to act kindly when others would strike,
Just to keep busy with things that are right;
This is my duty to Him

Just to drive somebody's darkness away,
Just to make brighter the world of today,
Just to strew flowers along life's pathway;
This is my duty to Him.

Just to let Jesus have perfect control,
Just to know daily His grace makes me whole,
Just to have heavenly peace in my soul;
This is my duty to Him.

He Was Not Willing

He was not willing that any should perish,
Jesus enthroned in the glory above,
Saw our poor fallen world, pitied our sorrows,
Poured out His life for us — wonderful love!
Perishing, perishing! Throwing our pathway,
Hearts break with burdens too heavy to bear,
Jesus would save, but there's no one to tell them,
No one to lift them from sin and despair.

He was not willing that any should perish,
Clothed in our flesh with its sorrow and pain,
Came He to seek the lost, comfort the mourner,
Heal the heart broken by sorrow and shame.
Perishing, perishing! Harvest is passing,
Reapers are few and the night draweth near,
Jesus is calling thee, haste to the reaping,
Thou shalt have souls, precious souls for thy hire.

Flourish for pleasure, but little for Jesus;
Time for the world, with its troubles and toys,
No time for Jesus' work feeding the hungry,
Lifting lost souls to eternity's joys.
Perishing, perishing! Hark, how they call us:
"Bring us your Saviour, oh, tell us of Him!
We are so weary, so heavily laden,
And with long weeping our eyes have grown dim."

He was not willing that any should perish,
Am I His follower, and can I live
Longer at ease with a soul going downward,
Lost for the lack of the help I might give?
Perishing, perishing! Thou wast not willing,
Master, forgive, and inspire us anew;
Banish our worldliness, help us to ever
Live with eternity's values in view.
